POST DETAILS

Title:
Full-time elementary teacher

Description:
Malherbe International School, located to the West of Paris, France, provides an English education based on the English national curriculum for its primary classes. The school was founded in 1990 and is highly recognized for the level of its teaching and its nurturing environment.

We are seeking to recruit a full-time teacher to begin in May 2025 (ideally) or September 2025

The successful candidate will be a fluent English speaker, with teaching qualifications and recent experience teaching at primary level (senior infants to 5th class). Experience teaching the English national curriculum is a plus. Our ideal candidate would be able to start in May, where the first two months would involve providing small group interventions in our different primary level classes, before taking on the responsibility of a full-time class in September.

We are a small, family like school. The successful candidate must be a strong team player, willing to involve him/herself in the school's life.

Salary is based on the French scale, and accommodation may be provided as part of the compensation package. The position would be a full-time Monday to Friday position. The candidate must have valid working papers to work in France. Proficiency in the French language is a plus.
