POST DETAILS

Additional Information:

Applications are invited for a Department of Education sanctioned full-time caretaker.

The ideal candidate will have experience in general DIY, building maintenance, painting, power tools, janitorial/cleaning methods and an understanding of cleaning materials, chemicals, and equipment.

The role may include light plumbing, light carpentry, management of heating systems, fire/burglar alarms, keyholder/ security systems, locking systems & CCTV.

Shift work at certain times of the year may be a requirement.

Duties also include landscaping, use of ride on lawn mowers, outdoor/garden tools, manual handling, furniture movement and building safety.

The successful candidate will also be community focused, patient, kind, generous and enjoy working as part of a large staff team with the best interests of children and young people's social and emotional wellbeing and education at heart.

Often the caretaker is the first person a visitor meets, so a welcoming disposition along with a high level of professionalism and diligence is also needed.

National guidelines in child safeguarding must be met and appropriate Garda vetting completed prior to any appointment.

Base salary and conditions outlined in Circular Letter 0019/2025 of Dept of Education website.
